

Buckskin Tanning Class

April 13th
@10am

WHAT	Buckskin Tanning Class
WHERE	Jake Jones Park
WHEN	April 13th @ 10am
WHO	10 Spots for Youth and Community
COST	FREE & Lunch Provided
PREPARED BY	Culture & Natural Resource Departments

Who is teaching?

This class will be taught by Port Gamble S’Klallam Tribal Member, Garrett Sitting Dog.

What are we learning?

The traditional process of tanning a buckskin hide, we will be using all the parts of the animal to process and tan the hide.

What will it be used for?

There will be later classes on drum and drum stick making as well as a moccasin making class in coming months, the hide prepared will be a resource for these classes!

Contact

Limited spaces are available, please contact us soon to ensure your spot!

Garrett Sitting Dog

Environmental Technician

PGST Natural Resources

Garrettsd@pgst.nsn.us

Cell: (360) 271-0378

Richard Ogle

Environmental Education Outreach Coordinator

PGST Natural Resources

Rogle@pgst.nsn.us

Cell: (360) 710-9106