

PORT GAMBLE S'KLALLAM TRIBE

Request for Proposals for a Federal Lobbying Contract

BACKGROUND

Vision

“Port Gamble S’Klallam Tribe uses our many resources to maintain a proud, strong, healthy, educated community that uses innovation to ensure all our people enjoy a good quality of life.”

Mission: The mission of the government of the Port Gamble S’Klallam Tribe is to improve the quality of life for all tribal members. We accomplish this through decision-making that considers future generations, competent administration and management, preservation and protection of our rich cultural heritage and natural resources, the enhancement of economic opportunities, and the protection of tribal sovereignty through determining our own destiny.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF TRIBE

The Port Gamble S’Klallam Reservation is located on the northern tip of the Kitsap Peninsula in Washington State. It is situated on Port Gamble Bay, for generations an important natural resource for the Tribe and other Native Americans.

The Tribe is one of 29 federally recognized Indian Tribes in Washington State. The population of the Port Gamble S’Klallam Tribe is currently just over 1,400 enrolled tribal members. About half the tribal members reside on the reservation, along with other Native Americans and non-Indians. More information about the Tribe can be found at the Tribe’s website:

www.pgst.nsn.us

DESCRIPTION OF THE TRIBAL GOVERNMENT

The Port Gamble S’Klallam Tribal Council is comprised of six elected officials serving two year staggered terms. It serves as the executive and legislative body of the tribe and convenes twice a month to establish policy, review budgets and finances, and ensure staff is carrying out the responsibilities delegated to it to fulfill the vision and mission of the tribe.

The Tribal government employs over 300 employees and provides numerous direct services to the tribal membership. The Tribe also owns a casino, a convenience store, a tribally designated housing entity, and operates a 501 (c) 3 non-profit foundation. The casino operates class II and III gaming and employs approximately 400 employees, this number includes part-time and on-call staff.

SCOPE OF WORK

The Tribe seeks a contractor to assist the Tribe with federal legislative communication and strategy. The selected contractor will maintain regular communication with the Tribe's Legislative Manager and additional persons designated to supervise their work. They will deliver regular written/electronic reports that monitor and analyze legislation the Tribe designates as being of interest during the time the legislature is in session. The contractor will mutually agree to a conference call schedule with the Tribal Legislative Committee during the time the legislature is in session. They will advise the Tribe on legislative strategy and identify legislation, budget issues and policy issues of potential interest to the Tribe. The contractor will recommend legislative meetings for the Tribe to attend and will provide guidance as to the conduct of these meetings. They will facilitate testimony by the Tribe's representatives in legislative hearings as appropriate. The contractor will recommend political contributions to Federal elected officials. They will provide a year-end report addressing effectiveness of lobbying efforts.
